Chapter 1 by AmiaRaven

it was only two years ago when it happened. I meet my best friend coco. She is a black Thoroughbred mare. Soon after the incidence she had came to our rescue ranch. She had burns every where. We thought she wouldn't make it. But she did and two years later who would have known she would be a champion jumper in the youth division and soon be heading to state champs. I go out to the barn to check cocos water and to give her the daily grain and hay. As I walk in to the barn her stall door is wide open and shes gone no trace of where she went. I look out side and the trailer is gone too.

Jill why is she movin so much back in that trailer? i don't know Joe? what are we goin to do with her anyways? We are goin to sell that mare for thousands. Do you know how much people are will to pay to make their kids champions? No but theirs some cops riding our tail!
